

WORLD AIDS DAY

The school is delighted that the actions of our Year 10 students raised funds to this worthy cause. Ellie Barton, one of our pupils who helped organise the selling of ribbons, received a very complementary letter from the National Aids Trust (NAT) thanking the school for our fundraising efforts as well as a certificate for the school. Congratulations to all who contributed.

